REMARKS

On 8/13/2020, I was assigned to the walking beat on Main Street and was in the area of Main Street and Liberty Street. I was approached by the manager of Its Only Natural store, located at 575 Main Street. He identified himself as _____ and told me that approximately 15 minutes ago, someone had stolen several items from the store and left on foot. He said that the security cameras captured the theft.

I went to _____ into 575 Main Street and went into the office. _____ played a video showing a short white male, wearing a white tank top shirt, take 4 containers off the shelf, place them in a blue bag, and exit the store, making not attempt to pay for any items. I immediately recognized the person in the video as Joseph Ferraro and I had seen Ferraro approximately 10 minutes prior to being contacted by _____

I had seen Ferraro walking on Rapallo Avenue towards DeKoven Drive. I radioed a description of Ferraro and advised that he had stolen items from the store. Minutes later, Sgt. Dirga and Ofc. Tetrault advised that they were with Ferraro, at the skate park located at DeKoven and Green Street. I went to that location and upon questioning Ferraro, he admitted to taking the items from the store and said that he had already sold them.

_____ had provided me with a print out of the value of the items stolen and it amounted to $139.96.

Ferraro was arrested and charged with Larceny 6th, CGS 53a-125b. He was issued a misdemeanor summons (MC 046186), assigned a court date of 11/2/2020, and released on scene.

Ferraro, upon the request of _____, was instructed that he was no longer allowed in Its Only Natural, and was advised that if he enters the store, he would be trespassing and could face criminal charges. Ferraro said that he understood.

Action Date : 9/25/2020

Agency : MIDDLETOWN POLICE

REMARKS

On 9/25/2020, at or about 1935 hrs, I, Detective Schreiner, was in an unmarked, undercover police vehicle and was traveling south on Pearl Street. As I approached the intersection of Pearl and Lincoln Street, I noticed a car stopped on Lincoln Street at the intersection of Lincoln and Pearl Street. As I got closer to the area, I saw a light skinned male with a beard, wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt, approach the driver of the vehicle. The male on the street, reached into the vehicle briefly and the driver appeared to hand the male something as well. Based on my training and experience as a narcotics detective, I suspected that the driver of the vehicle and male on the street were engaging in the buying and selling of narcotics.

I pulled into a parking lot on Pearl Street and the vehicle then passed by me. I could no longer see the male that had interacted with the driver anywhere in the area. I pulled out behind the vehicle. The vehicle was a black Buick, bearing CT registration . I had Central Dispatch conduct an check on that registration and was informed that it should be on a Mercury van.

The vehicle turned west onto Washington Street and I pulled behind it. I activated my vehicle's emergency lights and siren and stopped the vehicle in the area of Washington Street and Park Place.

I approached the vehicle and lone occupant of the vehicle. He would later be identified as Aaron Ingenito. Before I said anything to Ingenito, he jammed his left hand into his right pocket. Fearing that Ingenito could be reaching for a weapon, I reached into the open vehicle weapon and grabbed onto his wrist and pulled it out of his pocket. Ingenito said he was just reaching for his license. I told him to keep his hands away from any pocket. Detective Lemieux and Peck then arrived on the stop. Detective Lemieux noticed that Ingenito had several small, white/off-white, rock like pieces on Ingenito's shirt and pants, suspected to be crack/cocaine. Detective Lemieux ordered Ingenito not to move and Detective Peck and I secured his left hand. Detective Peck then opened Ingenito's door and had him step out of the vehicle. He was brought back to the rear of his vehicle and secured in handcuffs. Located on the driver's side floor and driver's seat were pieces of small, white, rock like material. Utilizing a NIK wipe, the pieces tested positive for the presence of cocaine. Also located between the driver's seat and door, was a metal socket, that had copper wool in one end that was brunt. Ingenito would admit to purchasing crack cocaine from an individual on the street at Pearl and Lincoln Street. He said that he had smoked most of it prior to being stopped and the small pieces on the ground was the remainder that fell out of the socket when police were stopping him. The collectable pieces of crack cocaine and the improvised pipe were seized. They were tagged as evidence and secured at the Middletown Police Department.

An check of Ingenito revealed that he had an active Violation of Probation warrant.

Ingenito was issued a misdemeanor summons and he was charged with the following:

Possession of narcotics 21a-279(a)(1)

Possession of drug paraphernalia 21a-267a

Misuse of registration plate 14-147(c)

No insurance 14-213a

Operating unregistered motor vehicle 14-12a*

He was assigned a court date of 11/20/2020 at Ga-09 and was released on those charges.

Ingenito was arrested and brought to the Middletown Police Headquarters to be processed on his arrest warrant. There, he was unable to post the required bond (Middletown Police Case Number 20-28055).

REMARKS

On 10/5/2020, at approximately 08:00 hours, I, Officer Foss-Rugan responded to #19 Grand Street (Community Health Center) for a larceny of flowers complaint.

I spoke with _____ who is an employee of Community Health Center. _____ said that it was brought to his attention that at some time over the weekend, someone had come onto the property and stole numerous mum style plants from #19 Grand Street and the garden area in front of the property that is owned by Community Health Center.

Upon review of the video I was able to identify the suspect as Nur Moebius-Fitzpatrick through prior police contacts. _____ said the value of the mums and to have the landscaper's come back out to replant them would cost around $600.00. _____ said that due to the plants being uprooted and damaged, they would die if the landscaper's attempted to replant them.

Officer Tetrault and I responded to her address where we saw that there was a yellow colored mum plant in the front of her residence in the flower bed. We also located the suspect vehicle which was parked in front of the residence. From the street, we could see numerous additional mums in the backyard/driveway area. I photographed the mums and upon looking into her car, I could see fresh flower type soil and pieces of mums on the dashboard and center console area. I photographed through the windows this as well.

We made contact with Nur and I asked her about the mums. Nur said, "oh they are mad about the mums?". Nur admitted that she went to Community Health Center and took the mums. Nur said that she is a gorilla gardener and that she took the mums to spread love through the community by sharing them. Nur said she did not steal the mums she was just trying to share them. Nur also admitted that she went to the community garden on Ferry Street where she planted a red colored mum in the flower pot.

I issued Nur a Misdemeanor Summons (MC329959) charging her with Larceny in the fifth degree (53a-125a). A court date of 11/24/2020 at 09:00 hours at Middlesex Superior Court was issued.

END.

REMARKS

On 10-05-2020 at approximately 1248 hours I, Officer Thompson, was dispatched to Rogers Rd. for a harassment complaint.

I spoke with the complaint who stated Michael Lemley continuously calls her and violates an active protective order. I viewed the victims cell phone which showed eleven calls made on the above date from Lemley. I also reviewed three voice mail messages and was able to recognize Lemley's voice for prior police interactions. The victim later provided a sworn written statement of the incident.

I verified a protective order which listed Lemley as the defendant and the victim as the protected party. Lemley was also issued a conditions of release on 09-27-20 from a prior warrant involving the victim. Lemley also violated this order by contacting the victim.

Lemley was located a short while later by Sal's package store and placed under arrest. He was charged with the following violations of CT general statutes.

53a-223* - Violation of Protective Order

53a-222a - Violation of Conditions of Release 2nd degree

53a-183 - Harassment 2nd degree

Lemley was held on a $10,000 surety bond and will be arraigned on 10-06-2020 at GA 9.
